Your child has been selected to take part in a poetry recital award. A group of our children entered the competition last year and one of our Year 6 children won:

We need your permission for your child to take part; for them to be included in our school's and also CLPE's press and publicity and via marketing and communications including the school's and CLPE's websites, emails and social media.

We will also film your child reciting their poem and submit this to the competition.

All the children who enter will attend the award ceremony at the National Theatre on 12 July in the afternoon. They will arrive back at school at 4.30pm.

Yours sincerely
